Located in the Var department, in the Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur region, Salernes is a picturesque village rich in history and heritage. The Village sector, the heart of Salernes, is known for its tranquil atmosphere and its narrow streets lined with traditional stone houses. It houses several ceramic workshops, reflecting the importance of this industry for the region. The Provençal market, organized every Sunday, attracts locals and tourists for its local products. Not far from there, the natural landscapes of the Bresque valley offer a haven of peace, making Salernes
